Dear Applicant:

The firm of Litt, Estuar, Harrison & Kitson is accepting applications for its annual Emilia Lechuga-Bass Civil Rights Internship. The internship is for recent college graduates planning to attend law school with the objective of becoming civil rights/public interest lawyers.

Interns will gain practical legal experience by working on public interest and civil rights cases, including a number of class actions. Application materials for the Internship beginning in July 2008 must be received no later than March 1, 2008. After applications have been received, they will be screened, and a determination of which applicants to interview will be made. Not all applicants will be selected for interviews. The Internship Committee shall then make the final selection by April 30.

Interns may not accept any other employment during the term of the Civil Rights Internship.

Individuals who wish to apply must submit the attached Application plus the following:

1. College Transcript issued from your school (official or unofficial)
2. One Letter of Recommendation from each of the following:
 - (a) Professor;
 - (b) Former or Current Employer(s); and
 - (c) Political or community groups with which you have worked.
3. Resume
4. Writing sample. The writing sample must be an example of your own original writing, unedited by others, and be no more than ten (10) pages in length.

Please send Applications to:
